BIOGRAPHY AND CONTACTS

I am Beatrice Madella, illustrator and concept artist.

I am a horror nerd, a lover of legends and folklore and
I am fascinated by ancient abandoned places.
My work is giving visible shape to invisible worlds.

I started my career as illustrator for publishing sector in 2013. In the recent years I began working as concept artist for startup projects, focusing on environment concepts for horror videogames.

In these last years I have created illustrations for TTRPG manuals, focusing on creature subjects, for dark fantasy genre.

I have a YouTube channel where I talk about monsters from local legends while painting them in time-lapse.

I speak Italian, English and French.
